v. DEFAULT JUDGMENT AND PERMANENT INJUNCTION

PURNELL CRENSHAW

DEFENDANT

Upon motion of the Plaintiff, the Kentucky Board of Interpreters for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, for the Franklin Circuit Court to enter a default judgment and permanent injunction, the Court has reviewed the record and found that the Defendant, Purnell Crenshaw, has been served with process by the Sherriff of Jefferson County and has failed to respond to this Complaint. The Court having been sufficiently advised:

It is FOUND AND ORDERED that the Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment and Permanent Injunction is hereby SUSTAINED. The Plaintiff is granted a judgment against the Defendant as follows:

1. A default judgment and permanent injunction is hereby entered against the Defendant. The Defendant is permanently enjoined from the practice of "interpreting" pursuant to KRS 309 or attempting the practice of "interpreting" pursuant to KRS 309.

2. KRS 309.300(5) defines "interpreting" as:

[T]he translating or transliterating of English concepts to any necessary specialized vocabulary used by a consumer or the translating of a consumer's specialized vocabulary to English concepts. Necessary specialized vocabularies include, but are not limited to, American Sign Language, English-based sign language, cued speech, and oral interpreting.

3. This default order and permanent injunction is a binding final order of this Court, the violation of which constitutes contempt of Court, and subjects the Defendant to any and all civil and criminal penalties allowed by law, including but not limited to civil money penalties.

4. This default order and permanent injunction is the FINAL JUDGMENT of this Court. This case shall be removed from the active docket of the Court. This Court shall have continuing jurisdiction to enforce this default order and permanent injunction.

5. Should the Defendant violate the terms of this order, Defendant shall be liable to the Board for payment of costs and attorney's fees expended by the Board in pursuit of the enforcement of this and any subsequent order.

There being no just cause for delay, this is a final and appealable order.

BE IT SO ORDERED, this 2nd day of Feb., 2009.
